

THE MORNING APPEAL.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 29

HOW CARSON IS KEPT BACK.

The Treasury has ordered a new coinage of silver dollars and in a short time the mints of Philadelphia, San Francisco and New Orleans will be running full blast on silver coinage.

Carson, however, is left out in the cold because the Government has discovered that it cannot trust its bullion in the Carson Mint. The reopening of the Mint would give employment to about fifty or sixty men, but these men now have to go without the employment because a few of them have taken advantage of their opportunities to betray the trust imposed upon them by the Government.

Curiously enough one would imagine that the community would lend every assistance to the Government in detecting the thieves, but exactly the reverse is true. Tremendous efforts are being made to cover the tracks of the men who robbed the Government. The so-called "biggest people in town" are on their side working day and night, not to detect, but to condone crime.

All the legal talent in the town has been retained to hamper, retard and defeat justice. A member of the Bar Association who has the management of the corruption fund in the case has constantly violated his obligations as a lawyer by the lavish use of corruption money. After the first jury was drawn he walked up and down the streets in open defiance of the Court's order and the men he was seen with most voted for acquittal.

Over a month ago it developed in the court room that he had sent money to a witness to leave the country. Since then an affidavit has been filed charging him in terms with fresh corruption, but the law does not reach out for him, nor have any steps been taken by the Bar Association of this State—who are fully cognizant of his other criminal operations in law suits—to disbar him from legal practice and to place it beyond his power to further disgrace an honorable profession.

The tremendous pull behind these Mint cases grows more apparent every day, yet in justice to the Government let it be noted that the men who are taking so much pains to down Uncle Sam have not taken a single trick.

A short time ago the Gazette was parading the assertion that our Senators and Representatives in Congress had no influence. Now it endeavors to make it appear that Senator Jones, one of the eleven members who compose the Senate Finance Committee, which has a Republican majority, but the whole Senate. Of a verity, our Republican contemporary is, to say the least, peculiar.

The Reed men charge that McKinley's friends have spent $100,000 in the South within the last few months. They say that $10,000 was spent in Louisiana alone to control the delegation from that State.

The McKinley men make counter charges and say that Reed's friends have flooded the South with money. From what is said by the managers of the rival candidates of each other a vote in the National Convention will be worth at least as much as Langwin's knowledge of the mint steal.

The San Francisco Call publishes the "family arms of San Francisco people." That they are a rank fraud is suggested by the fact that there is not a codfish rampant or couchant among them. Take them as they average, they are a disgusting and shoddy lot, these American paraders of coats-of-arms. How could they be otherwise when heraldry is in direct antagonism to the republican spirit? As seen here, it is the tribute that counterfeit Americanism pays to the gewgaws of monarchy. It is a desertion of a higher for a lower type of government because the latter is clad in tinsel. It is an indication of a vulgar and common mind. The San Franciscans may keep their coats-of-arms, although as American citizens they should scorn to do it. The never-painted escutcheon of a strong manhood will do for a higher type of men—Fresno Republican.

The Reno Gazette is obliged to apologize for getting the Supreme Court decisions mixed up. It was printed in three parts and consequently got in wrong. The Gazette does the work for nothing because the State is too poor to pay. If the State can't pay a fair price for the work it has no kick coming.

G. W. Baker arrived from San Francisco yesterday. He says it is conceded by politicians that the Silver party will get a plurality of not less than 20,000 in California.—Journal.
